Many a man proclaim his own steadfast love, but a faithful man who can find?

The righteous who walks in his integrity-blessed are his children after him.

Proverbs 20: 6-7

Eugene Williams 82, of Milford, CT, completed his earthly journey on February 14, 2022.

Born in Robersonville, NC, he was a graduate of Bethel High School, Bethel, NC.

A former employee of Raymark Industries, he retired from Sikorsky Aircraft. In retirement, he appreciated viewing and reading about classic cars; being entertained by cable news, watching Western movies, discussing current events, especially politics; and caring for his lawn.

Eugene was preceded in death by his parents, Theodore and Lurlene Lowe Williams; his brothers, Cecil and Theodore Williams Jr; sisters, Lourae Harris, Evangelene Williams and Ella Brady.

Those who will continue his lasting legacy with love are his wife of 58 years,

Martha; beloved sons, Brandon Vaughn Courtney, and Eric Sean and his wife Terina; cherished grandchildren, Eric, Jr., Taliyah, Teairra; brother, Calvin Williams; family friend, Odell Williams Jr; godson, George Pipkin, III; and supportive family members, sincere friends and neighbors.

“ To my cousin Martha Ann Williams and Eric, and Courtney and family. We were saddened to hear of Eugene's passing. know that God is good and he's merciful and loving. Keep looking to the Lord Jesus Christ for all of your strength he will see you through. May he comfort and keep you during this difficult time. Know that your family here in Roanoke Virginia love you all and will always be here for you and are praying for you. God bless. Eric and Courtney we know you all would take care of your mama. Be encouraged. This is your cousin Jackie Williams from Roanoke Virginia.
