

Mrs. Eula Mae Jones

October 18, 1932 - November 30, 2021

Eula Mae Brown Jones was born in Martin County, NC on October 18, 1932 to Sam and Napoleon Brown. Eula Mae received her wings to eternal life on November 30, 2021 peacefully at Wake Med Hospital, Raleigh, NC with her family at her side.

Eula at a very early age, accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. She was a faithful member at Cedar Hill Missionary Baptist Church in Williamston, NC. For many years she enjoyed Bible study, sing in the choir, Sunday School, and favorably ushering and working as a nurse's aide with her late sister, Pearline Outerbridge.

The family has been blessed to have had a number one mother. We were her three amazing blessings from God in union with our beloved father, Willie Alexander Jones, Sr. Eula Mae was a compassionate loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, sister, sister-in-law and loved by her many cousins and friends. Our mother never met a stranger and always had a welcoming heart in her home. She enjoyed visitors and loved to provide them with a meal or snack with her favorite drink, a Coke!

Eula Mae was preceded in death by her husband, Willie Alexander, Sr; four brothers, Octavis Brown, Ulysses Brown, James E. Brown, James Willie Brown; two sisters, Pearline Outerbridge and Carrie Bell.

The memories of Eula Mae Jones's life will forever be cherished by her children, Willie Alexander Jones, Jr (Bettie) of Virginia Beach, VA, Julius Jones (Mildred) of Nashville, NC, Renea Reaves (Timothy) of Knightdale, NC;

two brothers, Booker T. Brown (Dorothy Anne) of Williamston, NC, Sam S. Brown, Jr (Betty) of Danville, VA;

Hargraves of Baltimore, MD; seven grandchildren, Betrece Conley (Keith), Ricardo Jones (Karen); Ahdionna Shoffner (Chris), Timothy Reaves (Courtney), Terence Reaves (Michael), Julius Jones, Jr (Amanda), and Xavier Jones; eleven great-grandchild; one beloved companion dog, Timberland Reaves; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and her Cedar Hill Missionary Baptist Church family whom she loved with all of her heart.
