

Mrs. Eva Mae Reeves

April 30, 1943 - April 22, 2016

By the dawn's early light my Savior's voice called out and Mrs. Eva Mae
Murphy

Reeves' soul took flight on Friday, April 22, 2016 at Vidant Medical Center in Greenville, NC. Eva Mae, as she was affectionately called, daughter of the late Floyd

Murphy, Sr. and Goldie Morris Murphy, was born in Craven County on April 30, 1943.

Although unexpected, and consumed with grief, we are also consoled by memories of her loving and giving spirit, ever present smile, sense of humor, her enjoyment of working in the garden and love for her family and friends.

Eva Mae graduated from South Ayden High School in 1962, and went on to attend and graduate from North Carolina Central University in 1968. She briefly taught in the Pitt County Schools.

Eva Mae was preceded in death by her brothers, Floyd Murphy, Jr. and Rander
Murphy.

Eva Mae leaves to cherish memories, her husband of 49 years, Thomas H.

Reeves and their children, Tammy, Angela, Tony, Jacqui, and Mike; sister, Belvina Banks; beloved grand-children, Keith, Jayla, Talya, Simone, Michael, Anderson, Tiana, and Sterlyn; sons-in-law, Derek and Jeffrey; brother-in-law, William Trent Reeves (Mary); sister-in-law, Queenie Harper (Aaron); a host of nieces, nephews and other loved relatives.
