“ I'm so sorry, but I didn't know until the day of the homegoing. I just found out today that your mom was gone as well. Looking at everything online with tears in my eyes and a heavy heart. I know through the years we lose sight of people but it hurts so badly when it's someone you've spent time with, but I'm thankful for the time I got to spent with you, your mother and my road dog Frances. To the family, may God strengthen and keep each and everyone of you.

Love,

“ Poot, You were a sister, cousin, and a friend. You're the funniest person I know. You always had a smile on your face and I love to cut up with you. Saddens me that you had to leave so soon but God loves you best. RIP LITTLE SISTER Until we meet again in our fathers house. Praying for our family love and will miss you always.

“ From elementary school through high school and even in our adult years we could always laugh out LOUD together!!! My biggest memory is how we use to thumb rides from Roanoke high school drivers ed classes and track practice lol..... Gurl we could've gotten killed 🙄🙄🙄🙄🙄🙄🙄🙄 but one thing I do know is they would've had a fight on their hands lol!!!! 🙄🙄 I'm sorry I didn't know you was sick (6 months off fb will make you miss stuff ☐☐) I would have surely tried to assist you one CNA/friend to another..... Thank you for coming to visit me here in Garner, thank you for ALLLL the laughs and Thank you for being my friend in those hard childhood days and THANK YOU for being YOU Poot..... LOVE YOU ❤️🙄❤️

“ On June 27, 2022 I loss my niece who was like little sister. We all grew up together in the same home. We didn't have much but we had love for one another. Cracking jokes on each other was a show of love. You buried your mom my sister a month before and a little over month later you leave us. There has always been unconditional love between us and I will miss you greatly. Rest now my niece. Your pain and fatigue has gone. You're now welcome into God's Kingdom.
