

Mr. Frankie Donnell Speller

April 1, 1953 - December 17, 2016

Frankie Donnell Speller was born on April 1, 1954 to the late Calvin Speller and Lucille Cleopatra Brown.

During his adolescence stage, Frankie attended the New York Public school system.

Upon completion, he drove a milk truck for several years, in addition to working for Catholic Charities. As his life continued, his ultimate goal was to move back down south to be closer to family. On Saturday December 17, 2016 God transitioned Frankie from his earthly abode to his eternal home. The family is forever grateful to God for blessing us with the life of Frankie Donnell Speller.

Frankie is preceded in death by his father, Calvin Speller; nephew, Raheem S. Brown.

Frankie leaves behind the following to cherish his memory, his mother, Lucille Brown of Colonial Heights, VA; two sisters, Marilyn Elaine Speller- Griswell (Tyrone) of Chester, VA, Vera Denise Allen (Winston) of Rocky Mount, NC; one brother, Gerald Robertson of Colonial Heights, VA; three nephews, Daniel Wilson (Lakeisha) of Petersburg, VA, Robert Speller of Henderson, NC and Jeremy Wilson of Richmond, VA; three nieces, Felicia Speller of Rocky Mount, NC, Shakeya Brunson of Richmond, VA and Destiny Allen of Fairfax, VA; a host of cousins, relatives and friends.
