

Mr. Freddie Earl Vines

March 18, 1946 - August 10, 2023

The family will receive visitors at 1003 River Hill Drive, Greenville, NC 27858, starting Tuesday, August 15, 2023 until Saturday, August 19, 2023. Visitors are welcome between the hours of 4pm-9pm during those days.

Freddie Earl Vines, son of Ulysses and Lillie Mae Vines, was born in Pitt County on March 18, 1946. God called him home Thursday, August 10, 2023, while a patient at ECU Health Medical Center, Greenville, NC.

Freddie graduated from Bethel Union High School on May 26, 1966. After graduation, he worked at the National Spinning Company in Washington, NC, and Vermont America Corporation (a Robert Bosch Tool Corporation division) in Greenville, NC. Freddie retired in 2007 after 35 years with Vermont America.

Freddie joined Saint Mary Missionary Baptist Church early and was a faithful and respected member of Saint Mary until his passing.

Freddie enjoyed watching all types of sports, especially drag racing. He loved family, food, and spending time with lifelong friends. Freddie also worked tirelessly to get people registered to vote.

Freddie was preceded in death by his parents, and his eldest sister,

Josephine Mays.

Freddie leaves to cherish his legacy one son, Houston Vines (Kara) of Morrisville, NC; one daughter, Tamila Vines Lee (Larry) of Charlotte, NC; six grandchildren Darrina O'Neal Milton (Antonio) of Greenville, NC, Christina O'Neal Austin (Brandon) of Honolulu, Hawaii, Treyvin Vines of Greenville, NC, Myles Lee, Spencer Lee and Brooke Lee all of Charlotte, NC; 4 great-grandchildren; one sister, Vivian Vines of Greenville, NC; one brother, William Vines of Raleigh, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
