

Ms. Gabriella Nwamaka Iduh

May 5, 2007 - August 5, 2019

On August 5, 2019, the Angels of Heaven came and escorted our princess, Gabriella (Gabby) Nwamaka Iduh, home to be with the Lord.

Born on May 5, 2007 at Vidant Medical Center in Greenville NC, Gabby was known for her spunk, loving personality and deep care for others. She was strong willed, and honest. She loved life, her family, the Lord, and her supporters. In her lifetime, she demonstrated perseverance, strength and courage that inspired everyone she met.

Gabby was a seventh grader at East Carolina Imagine Academy (homeschool). She enjoyed reading, math, doing science experiments and craft projects. During her early years, she was a member of the Young Champions Cheer/Dance Squad and dabbled a bit with karate. Later, she became a member of the Music Academy of Eastern Carolina homeschool band where she played the drums and bells. In her free time, she enjoyed playing games, playing outside, dancing with her cousins to Just Dance, watching movies, collecting princess dolls, and pranking family with her aunt. Most of all, Gabby loved to sing, perform and entertain all who would listen and watch.

Left to honor and celebrate Gabriella's life, her mother, Cassandra Ann Iduh (David Lawal), father, Sunday Iduh; maternal grandparents, Clinton and Shirley Smith; nana, Alice Locke; uncle, Clinton

Smith, Jr (Tasha); cousins, Emma, Clinton III, Christian, and Isabella; her aunt and sidekick, Aunt Maine, and a multitude of family, friends and supporters.

“ We extend to "Gabby's" family our love and heartfelt sympathy. We pray for God's strength and comfort to you at this time. I had the opportunity to meet Gabby, a sweet and loving child, a few times. One thing I observed is that she loved my grandson Tre, and he loved her much as he would often talk about her during our conversations and let me know how she was doing.
