“ I remember one Christmas when I could not get to visit when she was still living in Florida due to work. I was able to go in late January and so I did and I brought their presents with me. All the kids were so surprised and happy to see me and the presents as well, I'm sure. I remember Gabby making the comment " I told you " to her siblings but I did not know what she meant. Her grandmother then told me that Gabby had insisted that I would bring presents when I came to visit and she was right. Definitely one of my favorite of her and the family. Christmas is hard without her voice on the phone on Christmas day but I still hear her saying it in my heart and my head. Merry Christmas Gabby. You will be forever loved and missed by this uncle. Uncle Anthony.

“ She was one of those people who just made you smile when you didn't even want too. She always made you feel like you had no worries. I worked with her at Kickbacks and people always asked for her to be their server. She would always hang out with us at the host stand and make jokes. She worked so so so hard. I worked with her almost every other day. We will all miss her so much. She was beautiful, sharp, and kind. It's gonna be hard not seeing her in that cheetah print jacket coming through the doors every day at 11 for her shift. Rest in Paradise 💜

“ *To the Pleasant family:
May God strengthen you during this difficult time. Gabby was such a beautiful person both inside and out. She was a big part of our family and I am so thankful that God allowed our families to meet. The girls went to school together, shared classes together in the (Second Life Program), and spent so much time together. I remember Gabby would often call me when the girls were "plotting" something or just wanted to go somewhere and say "Mrs. Charlene" can I talk to you as she proceeded to tell me why and how it was important...I will certainly miss her and even though we are far away please know that our hearts are heavy as we know what joy she bought to all of our lives!*
