

Mr. George Lawrence

June 9, 1945 - October 13, 2013

George Lawrence was born June 9, 1945 in Trinidad, West Indies to George and Mildred Missett Lawrence. He departed this life on Sunday, October 13, 2013.

After completing secondary school in Trinidad, George immigrated to New York and attended Roberts' Technical and Trade Schools where he received certification for diesel repair and maintenance.

He was wed to Patricia Ann Parker in 1977, and to this union his two daughters Josina and Ibura were born.

George relocated to Greenville, NC and was employed by TRW Steering & Suspension Industries where he worked as a metallurgist from 1981 until retirement.

In December 1989 he was married to LeVolia Allsbrooks Garrett.

George came to personal faith in Jesus Christ, and served the Lord unashamedly wherever he went. He was privileged to benefit from the ministries of several great men and women of God including Rev. Sydney Locks, Rev. Walter Bynum, Pastor Ray Solomon, Pastor Rodney Brown, Pastor C.D. Faison, and Apostle Rhonda Travitt.

George leaves to cherish his memory and continue his legacy LeVolia, his wife of 23 years; daughters Josina Lawrence and Ibura Lawrence of California, and Candace Daly of Georgia; brothers Philip Lawrence (Judy) and Kenneth Philbert of Trinidad, and Oscar Lawrence (Michelle) of California; sister Pearl Sanderson (Cyril "Bunny") of New York; four grandchildren,

Ebonique Lawrence of California, and Nicholas, Hylah, and Hannah Daly of Georgia; and many more nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends.
