

Mr. Gevoice Highsmith

September 2, 1969 - December 20, 2014

Gevoice Highsmith was born on September 2, 1969, the second born son to James and Ada Highsmith. God sent his guardian angel to bring him home December 20, 2014.

Gevoice received his formal education in the Connecticut School System and also attended Norfolk State to continue his educational endeavors. Being the hard worker that he was, he utilized his talents in many areas, including landscaping and welding.

“Gee” as he was affectionately known by family and friends, was a loving son, grandson, brother, nephew, companion, cousin and friend. To know him was to love him and you were assured that if “Gee” was in attendance there would be laughter and lots of fun to be had by all. His infectious laugh and free spirit will truly be missed. He could be heard saying countless times “I got this”, “I got you” and you could rest assure that he was a person that would follow through if you asked for his assistance.

He leaves to cherish his memories his parents, James and Ada Highsmith; Brother, Maurice Highsmith all of the home; three aunts; Dorothy Maye of Upper Marlboro, MD, Lula Terry of Baltimore, MD, Willie Atkinson of Gloucester, VA; three uncles; Glen Highsmith of Bethel, CT, James Atkinson of Danbury, CT, Clarence Atkinson (Geraldine) of Greenville, NC; niece; Paris

Kemp, a special friend Pamela Clark, both of Virginia Beach, VA; Sister in Christ, Karolyn Spence of Elizabeth City, NC; a host of cousins other relatives and friends.

“This is the Day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it”
Psalm 118:24
