

Ms. Gwendolyn Moore

March 22, 1954 - May 1, 2024

Gwendolyn Elizabeth Staton Moore better known as “Gwen” daughter of Robert Staton and Bernice Carney, was born on March 22, 1954. She departed this life to be with the Lord on May 1, 2024 at ECU Health Medical Center.

Gwen was a graduate of J.H. Rose High School, class of “1972” she sang in the choir at Wynn’s Chapel Church at a very early age. She worked as a CNA for 30 years until her health started to fail her.

Gwen was married to the late Phillip Moore. She was a loving mother to her children and had a heart of gold. She was definitely a people person.

Gwen had many hobbies. planting flowers, watching TV – especially her Westerns, cooking, cooking, and more cooking, especially that dish of chicken salad. She also loved spending time with her siblings and family. She loved her nieces and nephews as her own. Gwen’s doors were always open to anyone that needed help.

In addition to her parents, Robert Staton and Bernice Carney, Gwen was preceded in death by two brothers, Dallas Ray Staton and Robert Earl Staton. Gwen leaves to cherish her loving memories, to her son, Lamont Staton of Greenville, NC; her daughter, Tania Staton of Greenville, NC; her brothers, Bishop Linwood Staton (Elder Deborah), Charlie Staton (Brenda); one sister, Maxine Johnson of Charlotte, NC; sisters – in – law, Ruby Ann Staton of Greenville, NC and Judy Harris of Greenville, NC; two grandsons, Montevious Staton of Charlotte, NC and Jymeek Braswell of Greenville, NC; two granddaughters, Shakayah Braswell of Greenville, NC and Daja Staton of Selma, NC; Damerion Staton of Greenville, NC; four great grandchildren all of Greenville, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends; and a very special longtime friend, Michael McLawhorn.

“ My sweet, sweet sister-n-love, I cannot find the words to say how much I miss and love
you. You brought joy and laughter to my life. I wish we had a little more time to have together. I will never ever forget you. I still talk to you. I will see you in the resurrection, take your rest, Love always your sister for life, Debora S Staton.
