

Mr. Haywood J. Latham

November 29, 1953 - May 30, 2021

To view the service please go to Congleton Funeral Home and Cremations Facebook Page at 11:00am.

Haywood James Latham, Jr. was born November 29, 1953 to the late Haywood Latham, Sr and Julia Latham. He departed this life on Sunday, May 30, 2021 at Vidant Medical Center, Greenville, NC.

Haywood graduated from Robersonville High School, Robersonville, NC in 1971. After high school he joined the US Army in 1972 and served until 1976. He attended Pitt Community College and graduated with an Associate Degree in Accounting. Haywood worked with Vermont America in Greenville, NC for many years. Later in life he started his business DBA Latham's Home Repairs until his death.

Haywood was a member of Willow Chapel Baptist Church, Gold Point, NC. He loved God. God was his conversation with everyone he encountered. Haywood knew that was his ministry.

Haywood was preceded in death by his brother, Wardell Latham.

Haywood leaves to cherish his special memories, one sister-in-law, Alice Latham of Washington, NC; three nephews, Reverend Dontae Council

(Shanese) of Oak City, NC, Wardell Latham, Jr of Raleigh, NC, Marcus Wooten of Norfolk, VA; one niece, Yumekco Little Singletary of Raleigh, NC; two great nephews, Tycameron Brown of Greenville, NC, Kevieon Latham of Robersonville, NC; four great nieces, Markayla Latham of Greenville, NC, La'Niya Latham, Lindsay Julia Latham both of Robersonville, NC, Zion Council of Oak City, NC; three aunts, Velma Little of Parmele, NC, Modestine Jenkins of New Jersey, Ida Teele of Gold Point, NC; a special friend, Patricia Crandell of Greenville, NC; a host of relatives and friends.
