

Mrs. Henrietta Turner

October 21, 1930 - December 17, 2015

Mrs. Henrietta Turner, affectionately known as “Pudding”, was born to the late Isaac J. and Della M. Stilley in Blounts Creek, NC on October 21, 1930. On Thursday, December 17, 2015, surrounded by her loved ones, she departed this life to rest in Jesus until the trumpet sounds on “that great getting up morning” when Jesus comes again.

Henrietta was educated in the Beaufort County public school system. She met and married the love of her life, William Turner, Sr. They raised six loving and devoted children. She lived in NY for many years taking care of her family and being a devoted housewife. In the early 70’s they returned to Blounts Creek, NC.

At an early age she joined Phenel Chapel Missionary Baptist Church where she was an active member. In 2003, Henrietta joined Ebenezer Seventh-day Adventist Church in Greenville, NC where she served as deaconess for several years.

She had an infectious smile and a quiet demeanor. She was loved and respected by all who knew her. She found great pleasure in her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Henrietta also greatly enjoyed working outside in the garden and growing beautiful plants.

She is preceded in death by her husband, William Turner, Sr.; son, Isaac Turner; two sisters, Ola Minor and Roberta Keys.

Henrietta leaves to cherish her memory, four daughters, Della M. Stilley of Greenville, NC, Nola Turner Chandler of King, NC, Leeietta Gibbs of Blounts Creek, NC, Debra Joseph of Queens, NY; one son, William Turner, Jr. of Greenville, NC; one sister, Verna Dixon of Ernul, NC; two brothers, Edison Ray Stilley and James C. Stilley both of Blounts Creek, NC; eight grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; one aunt, Delzora Spencer of Edward, NC; four sisters-in-law, Queenie Moore and Judy Chapman both of Blounts Creek, Carrie Turner and Darlene Moore both of Washington, NC; mother-in-law, Ella Turner of Blounts Creek; special friend, Florida Cooper of Edward NC; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
