Henry Allen Manley was born November 8, 1947 in Windfall, to the late Nellie Manley. On Tuesday, December 29, 2020. Henry transitioned from earth to glory.

Henry attended Elizabeth City State University for three and half years until he left to start up a new tax business. He later graduated from Cayuga Community College with a major in Business. After graduating, he ran his successful tax business for 35 years. Been versatile in nature, Henry counseled people about their taxes, helped them get houses, create wills etc.

Henry was a born-again believer and serves God by serving man. He was member of Deeper Life Ministries in Little Washington, NC, pastored by William and Dorothy Guilford.

Henry was married to Rose Manley for 33 years, which was a great inspiration to the writing and completion to his book, entitled "Food for Thought".
