

Mrs. Iselena Highsmith Moore

August 5, 1922 - April 25, 2014

Mrs. Isolena Highsmith Moore, ninety two, daughter of the late Willie Highsmith and the late Hattie Little, was born August 5, 1922 in Martin County.

She was a resident of Parmele N. C. when she peacefully departed this life on April 25, 2014 at East Carolina Heart Institute, Greenville, N.C.

Isolena was a faithful member of Belmont Missionary Baptist Church, Robersonville, N.C. She was member of the choir for many years and later became a member of the Mothers Board. Isolena loved her church and was always in attendance until her health began to fail.

Isolena attended Martin County Schools, and worked at Southern Apparel as a seamstress in Robersonville, N.C. for more than twenty years.

Isolena truly loved people, especially her family whom she truly loved. She would take time to assist those in need such as a trip to the store, the doctors, or a ride to church, never taking or asking for money, she enjoyed cooking meal, visiting and sick and was always on a mission of good will.

Isolena was preceded in death by seven brothers, and eight sisters.

Isolena survivors include her son, Bobbie Ray Highsmith (Beverly) of South

Hill Va.; one brother, Joseph Highsmith (Ella) of Richmond Va.; one sister, Lizzie Andrews of Greenville, NC; one grandson, Bobby Ray Highsmith Jr. of Richmond Va.; one goddaughter, Deborah H. Lee of Raleigh NC, a large host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My dear great-aunt Iselena, sister to my grandfather, William Joseph Highsmith. I will miss her. Spent summers at her house along with my great-grandmother Hattie. She would never let us leave without saying hello. Part of my heritage, and dearly cherished. The God of all comfort be with the rest of the family. 2 Corinthians 1:3-5.
