

Mr. J.C. Brown

December 13, 1940 - March 2, 2021

The Lord is too wise to error and too just to be unkind.

God saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb.

He gently closed his loving eyes and whispered, "Peace Be Thine."

J.C. Brown was born December 13, 1940, in Williamston, NC to the late James Ed and Mary Jane Brown. He attended the public schools of Martin County, NC. After school, he was employed at Reddick Equipment where he remained until his retirement.

As he continued life's journey, J.C. met and married the love of his life, Mary Esther Gainer. They cherished many blissful years together before her demise.

J. C. had a love for gardening and his yard. Before his illness, he always grew beautiful vegetables, especially collards. He had a deep voice and tall stature which demanded everyone's attention. There was never a question of his presence if you were in the same room or even nearby. He possessed a personality like none other. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

On March 2, 2021, J. C. Brown entered into eternal rest. In addition to his parents and wife, he was preceded in death by one son, Billy Brown; two brothers, Thomas Williams and James Ed Brown, Jr. and one sister, Mary Louise Brown Wallace.

To rejoice in his memory and his passing, he leaves his sons, James Ewell of Williamston, Terry Brown of the home; his daughter, Marie Brown of the home;

one brother, David Brown (Lorraine) of Williamston, NC; four sisters, Elizabeth Brown of Bronx, NY; Minnie Brown and Ada Rollins of Hillside, NJ and Shirley Stevenson of Williamston, NC; several nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
