

Mr. Jaison Rashad Jackson

March 18, 1984 - October 8, 2021

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, and I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

2 Timothy 4:6-8

The clock of life struck for the first time in the life of Jaison Rashad Jackson on March 18, 1984 at Pitt County Memorial Hospital in Greenville, NC. The pendulum made its final swing, as he entered into eternal rest on Friday, October 8, 2021.

Jaison was born the son of Jeff Jackson and Colette Clemons Jackson.

Jaison graduated from Chamblee High School in 2002 in Stone Mountain, GA. In 2004, he moved to Greenville, NC which became his final landing.

Jaison experienced trials and tribulations, pitfalls and downfalls; but, for the grace of God, he overcame them all!

Jaison enjoyed his life in his own way. He loved being around his family and friends and was a master on the grill. Jaison will be sorely missed. Especially, that bright, wonderful smile!

Jaison was free-spirited, but started taking life more seriously in 2014 with the births of his son, Jordan Adam Hunter, and daughter

Ahlaya Eunice Sandifer. Nothing stood in the way of Jaison being the best father he could be to Jordan and Ahlaya. They were his entire heart! Being a father called Jaison to aspire for more.

Jaison was employed by BPL Plasma- Blood and Plasma Donation Center from August 2014 until his passing. Jaison accomplished a lot in a short period of time. Prior to his death, Jaison was promoted to Assistant Manager. Jaison's focus and dedication was starting to pay off. Sadly, his life ended too soon to see his full potential.

Jaison leaves to cherish his fondest memories and mourn his passing are his mother, Colette C. Jackson of Greenville, NC; father, Jeff Jackson of Florence, SC; son, Jordan A. Hunter of Greenville, NC; daughter, Ahlaya E. Sandifer of Charlotte, NC; uncle, Rodney D. Clemons (Lisa) of Winterville, NC, aunt, DeWanda L. Eaton of Bowie, MD; great aunt, Queenie Carr of Baltimore, MD; 1st cousins, Rodney L. Clemons of Fayetteville, NC, Kelli O. Clemons and Ryan D. Clemons, both of Greenville, NC; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I've really been out the loop since having my baby but you've been real heavy on my mind. Only to find out that you're no longer here with us. The last time we spoke, we was supposed to link up so you could meet Autumn since you was in my area. Sadly that day never came and it never will. We've known each other for a long time I'll forever remember our memories we shared. Rest well love ❤️

“ Jaison, words cannot express how much we all miss you. These past couple of weeks have been so hard but with God's help we will all get through it. I want to personally thank you for the gift of love that you have shown me throughout these years. You showed me how to live life and know that it is more out here than just Greenville. I promise to look out for Colette & Pops and Jordan and Ahlaya have my love forever as well. Continue to Rest Peacefully sweetheart. We'll love you forever and you definitely won't be forgotten... Love, your TK..
