

Mr. James Moore

February 23, 1942 - December 30, 2017

James Russell Moore was born to the late Mother Artlee and Deacon Armond Moore on February 23, 1942 in Brooklyn, New York. James was the youngest of seven children (George, deceased). He attended church at an early age. James went to Sunday School at St. Marks Church of Christ, Disciples of Christ in Brooklyn, NY, where he loved to sing and was also baptized.

James was an intellectually gifted person. He loved learning new and adventurous materials. James was extremely creative, and knowledgeable. He went to school in Brooklyn until his family moved to Deer Park, Long Island, where he graduated from North Babylon High School. James went to college in New York City, at Fashion Institute of Technology (F.I.T.), where he graduated in 1959. He worked several jobs. His most important career positions were at Harvey Bernard Corporation clothing line, Rueben H. Donnelly Corporation, and Stanadyne Automotive Corporation. Throughout his career, James received various distinguished achievements at all of his jobs which proved him to be a truly hard working man. Nothing could hold James back once his mind was set on a task.

James was a devoted and loving husband and father. He married Shera, and from this union was born Tonya Renee and James Armond "Jimmy". Later, he and Carol Ann married, and from this union was born Charlene Artlee. James was such a caring person, not only was he involved in the lives of his family, but he showed real concern for his sisters, brother and his entire extended family. He was very personable. He knew how to interact with people very well. He could be lots of fun, and very light hearted when he wanted to be, and yet he could be serious when he needed to be.

James eventually relocated to Pantego, North Carolina, where he loved to garden and was a fantastic cook. After many years of suffering ill health, he departed this life on Saturday, December 30, 2017. We know he is in glory now, but our James, will be sorely missed.
