

Mr. James Russell Rodgers

October 31, 1945 - November 2, 2011

James Russell Rodgers, also known as "Goat Man", son of the late Walter and Rebecca Rodgers was born on October 31, 1945 in Williamston, North Carolina. He departed his life on November 2, 2011 after a short illness. He received his education in the public school system of Martin County. He married early in life, which later ended in divorce. James was a painter and a contractor for many years. His work was loved by many. He became a member of Liberty Grace while residing in Baltimore, Maryland. Upon his move back to Williamston, NC he found comfort with his loving sister Glendora Lee. He later joined United Holy Church of Deliverance and was a faithful member until his health began to decline. "Goat Man" made numerous friends where ever he went and never met a horse he could not train. He will truly be missed by all. He leaves to cherish his memories, four sisters: Loretta Owens of Washington, DC, Glendora Lee of Williamston, NC, Linda Williams and Evelyn Hall of Baltimore, Maryland; two brothers, Walter Rodgers of Williamston, NC and Linwood Rodgers of Baltimore, Maryland; four brother-in-laws and one sister-in-law; one god-sister, Lila Nichols of Bowie, Maryland; one special nephew Ricky Owens; two aunts, one uncle; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
