

Mr. James "Fat Daddy" Taylor

May 22, 1946 - July 3, 2020

James "Fatdaddy" Taylor was born on May 22, 1946 to his beloved parents, Ardell Taylor and Mary Harrington Taylor. God called "Fatdaddy" to his heavenly home on Friday, July 3, 2020.

"Fatdaddy" was a Christian and enjoyed being around family and friends. His favorite pastime was Domino's. He worked at Martin Community College where he retired. "Fatdaddy" enjoyed barbecuing, cutting hair, and making sure his yard was impeccable. He was also a member of the Freemasonry. "Fatdaddy" was married to the late, Brenda Taylor.

"Fatdaddy" is preceded in death by five sisters and three brothers.

"Fatdaddy" leaves to cherish his memories, his children, Marsha Davis, Shannon Howell, Melvin Davis Jr.; niece/Goddaughter, Ellen "Netta" Taylor-Mayo; two sisters, Mary Elizabeth "Sis" Taylor, Vera Ross; six grandchildren; two sisters-in-law, Verna Coburn, Shielda Forrest; three grand-dogs, Shotsy, T'angi, Babee; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

"Fatdaddy" will be sincerely missed by many and the family hopes that everyone will remember his spirit.

“ Uncle Fat Daddy was my favorite person as well as my Great Uncle. Not only was he kind and loving he was a jokester. He introduced the game of Dominoes (Bones) to me in 2008 when I just popped up in Greenville, NC. I'll never forget how much fun we had that weekend & how I so ❤️ him.
