“ I want to take this time to reach out to the Taylor Family Members to give my condolences for the passing of your Father and brother, to grace you with God's Holy Blessings that will take you through this hard time. Its not an easy thing to do when you know someone that you basically grew up with as well as attended school together, has clamed the resurrection. There is one thing for sure, earth has no sorrows that Heaven cannot heal and strengthen the left behind ones.

Be blessed in the spirits of the Almighty Father God! Sorrow may only endure for a night but, by the blessings of the Holy Father God, joy will surely appear in the morning. Hallelujah!

“ I'm going to really miss my road dog, neighbor, and uncle JT. He and my Aunt Ann had been together forever and a day and that's why he was uncle JT to me. We rolled out the drive way about the same time on our way to work and I'm truly going to miss that Truck starting up in the mornings. This is so heartbreaking for me but I know we all have to leave this earth at some point and time. Aunt Ann I Got You! And I know JT will be watching over you too!

Many of my best childhood memories include my uncle JT. Im told that as a toddler he would scoop me up and ride me all day on the great bus 🚌 He always showed me love and made me feel special growing up. He and my aunt Ann are part of the reason I was a spoiled kid. Lol but hey I was loved 🙏🏾♀️ I'll never forget you 🥰 Thank you for your love. I'm counting on you to watch over auntie and the rest of us. ❤️

With a heavy heart I write a good bye to you. What a hand you won when you and mom came together.. Always got a kick out of you introducing us as your daughters to family and friends. What great memories you left all to cherish and most of all how to treat people fair and with kindness. My husband always say this how JT would do it and you have him getting up Saturday morning watching westerns. Funny thing about life we don't chose the family you born into but GOD allows us to chose who we build families with and we built a family with you for over 2 decades! Rest in Power!

*JT this is so hard for me as you and I have been friends over 50 years just like brothers. We even shared an apartment together back in the day, I used to be at your house in Simpson and the River house and when I moved to Hardee Acres you said JC if another house open up out there man call me cause I am moving out there too and you did. This is really hard for me but I know you rolling with the angels in heaven, I will never never forget you.I love you bro. You left and did not tell us bye but I see you on the other side. Love you Ann
