“ James was the father of our two handsome boys, he was a great person. This is a very difficult time for me and our kids.. I really didn't want believe he was gone. You dream of this happening to you... but now I know he is up there watching over our boys from above.. just wish we ended things on a better note. But James I want tou to know I never stopped loving you, we spend 6 years together and 2 beautiful children. So keep watch over them. I love you always rest easy...
