“ I want to send my deepest sympathy to the family of Attorney James Young.

The bible tells us we can gain comfort from God, even during times of sorrow. We pray to our heavenly father for help to cope with the sorrow felt from the death of a loved one.

By prayer and supplication, let your petitions be made known to God; and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:6

May you find comfort by relying on our heavenly father and learning more about the blessings of God's kingdom.

“ J.Y. and I go back 45 years to our days in college at Harvard. We partied, played touch football (into our thirties) and basketball (the last time we may both have been fifty) together. It can safely be said that he was extremely competitive, something I experienced first hand whenever we were on opposite teams! J.Y. was a talented attorney, and I will forever be grateful for the role he allowed me to play at a turning point in his legal career. Indeed, it was at that juncture that our friendship was permanently cemented. Unfortunately, we lost contact when he moved to North Carolina. I wish I had known of his illness; I would have loved to have visited, laughed and debated with him one last time. Please let me know if I can make a charitable donation in his name and memory to an organization that was important to him. R.I.H., J.Y.

“ Prayers an condolences to the family of James Young, Esq.

A Scott Cleveland Oh - June 12, 2017 at 07:47 AM

“ This is my Farewell to James Young.

James was my friend, my buddy. My confidant and just like a Brother to me. I shared the good and the bad with him. I was there in his life when things were at its apex and and when he experienced the nadir.points of his life.

James and I were closer than even our brothers. He was there for me when I had problems and never abandoned me in times of trouble. We knew things about each other that our families did not know. However, throughout all the good and bad, he always remained in good spirits.

James often remarked that when things were bad, he found out who his friends were. However he never named them nor wished bad on them. He accepted his fate and the things that happened to him like a real Christian. He never blamed anybody for his bad and accepted responsibility for his fate.

James was able to experience several great and wonderful things in his life. The greatest thing he accomplished was that he came to know the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal savior. He loved the Lord and was happy and thankful for the Lord's forgiveness, his mercy and his grace. And unlike Job's wife he never ever wanted to curse the Lord.

James also always praised the Lord for the gift of his Wife Toni and her beautiful children whom he loved like his own. They gave him the comfort of family stability. He loved Toni with all of his heart and soul. Many people do not know how good and wonderful she was to James. She was definitely his soulmate. Toni stuck with him through thick and thin. She brought the spiritual stability that he loved and welcomed in his life.

James also loved his Son, James Jr. and his family. He had video tapes he would watch of the times he spent with James Jr. He treasured those tapes and those memories. He was also very happy to have the opportunity to spend time with his Grandson as well.

Of course he was very happy that his brothers came to see him and he cherished the times they spent growing up. He shared remarkable memories of his Mother and father and the good and bad of his childhood. However, he never had any regrets.

I had the opportunity to be with him during his last days. It was a wonderful time and experience for both of us. We spoke to each other from the heart. He was at peace. He accepted his mortality, but was happy and felt blessed.

James will always be my friend and I look forward to seeing him in Heaven. I will always love him and will miss him until that time.

Farewell my friend, you have fought the good fight, you have finished the race, you have kept the faith and I will see you again in Glory!!

To the family of a wonderful long time friend from Cleveland, Ohio. We worked together many years, I retired as a Bail Bondsman, we enjoyed the Cavs, Browns and Eating out all the restaurants in town. A great lawyer, and friend. My prayers are with you all. James Bond Hill
