

Mrs. Janice Isler Carter

October 5, 1951 - May 11, 2021

Janice Carter was born October 5, 1951 in Brooklyn NY to the late Clarence and Naomi Isler. She departed this life on Tuesday, May 11, 2021.

Janice received her formal education in the public-school system of Brooklyn, NY. She received multiple certifications, achievements, and honors. Janice worked at LaGuardia Hospital at age 19. Janice knew the importance of hardwork. She continued her education at Manhattan College and became a supervisor in 1985. She also worked at Bronx Lebanon Hospital part time. Although Janice retired at an early age, we all know she couldn't sit down. After moving to North Carolina she became a host attendant at Vidant Health Care for twelve years.

Janice came from a family that believed in serving God. At an early age she gave her life to Christ and became a faithful member of The First Baptist Church of Crown Heights where she served on various Boards until she relocated to North Carolina in 2001. Upon relocating to Greenville, NC, Janice joined White Oak Missionary Baptist Church where she received a membership certificate from Women Empowerment movement and taught Sunday School. She then became a member of New Dimension Community Church where she served as a Deaconess and Sunday School Teacher. Whatever she found to do within the Church she did with joy and dedication.

Janice had an unwavering love for her daughter, Marshannon. Their relationship was one of a kind. She loved being a mother. Janice gained her one and only son, Treymaine Carter when she married William Carter on November 26, 1988. Janice was a calm and peaceful person that always had a smile on her face. Janice was affectionately known as “Mama” to her grandchildren. Janice was preceded in death by her sisters, Carol Crayton, Pamela Smith and Michelle Isler.

Those left to cherish precious memories of Janice is her husband, William Carter; her daughter, Marshannon Tweedy; her son-in-law, Brian; her son, Treymaine Carter; sisters, Naomi Isler, Clarice Askew; brothers, Clarence and Michael Isler; a host of sisters and brother in laws; grandchildren, Brian, Ambria, Isis, Tatanisha, Joshua, Gabriel Tweedy, Felonna Carter; great grandchildren, Caden, Jayden and Jahlani; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews; a host of cousins and friends; her very best friends, Barbara Peterson and Patricia Singleton Brown; her special friends, Elizabeth Grant, Marlene Golding, Gloria Hill and Carline; her two babies, Moe and Cookie.

“ Praying God comforts you and gives you peace in your bereavement.

I express my deepest sympathy to the family and feel your sorrow in the loss of our cousin Janice.

I encourage you to “Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths.” (Proverbs 3:5-6)

Also Remember Revelations 21:4, “And God shall wipe all tears away from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.”

With Love.

“ *To the Carter/Isler Family:
We remember Janice being a part of the First Baptist Church of Crown Heights, C Norman Ensemble in Brooklyn, New York and the joy she and Bill portrayed serving God in song. Janice will be missed by all of us that had the Blessing of serving God along with her and her families. We will always remember Janice and Bill as they touched our lives and we pray for Bill and family strength in the upcoming time ahead. May God continues to keep you always.

“ My Condolences to the Carter/Tweedy family. I am so saddened by the passing of a true friend. I pray God brings you all comfort in such a time as this. I am going to miss Ms. Janice dearly. I worked with her in the Emergency Department and she was a jewel, blessing and a great person to work with. I will miss her NY accent, her laughter, smile and straight-forwardness. Ms. Janice loved her church, her family, especially the grandkids and definitely great grand. She will be missed by many and her memories will live on always.
