“ My sincere condolences to the Cox and Moye family. Gwen was a pure sweet spirit inside and out. Her smile would light up the room. I remember her working with my Mom, Marion Frances Moye Carmon, because she wanted to do something a few short hours. She will be missed; however, in the arm of God there is safety 🌹

“ My heart cries at the passing of my best friend . From 1st grade - 12th grade we were neighbors, church members, ,etc. She was my road dog. Life took us different paths, yet our friendship continued. Sleep on my friend and to the family we have peace in knowing that she is with the Lord.

“ To the family, neighbors and friends of Janice Cox, I pray your strength as we grieve in her transition to be with the Lord, our creator and Savior. Janice, like so many have posted was a wonderful person. And you did not have to be around her for very long to know that she was genuine, loving, consistent and compassionate. While very petite & small in stature, she was big in her relationships toward others and there, she stood very tall. Her love was gentle and kind towards others. On this side of life, she will missed but remembered in the sweet moments we all had with her. I was so privileged to meet her several years ago through ministries at Cornerstone Missionary Baptist Church. I will continue to pray healing as we grieve in the coming days, months and years. May GOD continue to bless and keep us.

“ Janice was my sister-in-law. I will always cherish memories of laughing and talking with her. She had a contagious laugh, a made-up mind, and a kind and quiet spirit. She inspired me with her relationship with God. Sometimes she would say “Ask God and God will tell you what to do” I loved my sister-in-law. RIP Janice. Continuing in prayer with you family❤️❤️❤️
