Life's Journey

For

Janie Gray Black-Price

October 12, 1939 – October 18, 2016

One of the most joyous days in the life of the late Timothy and Wilora Black was the day when their eighth child was born known as Janie Gray Black. She would be reared in a family of much love, a Christian home of high moral standards and a great work ethic.

Janie attended the Gold Point Colored School and W. C. Chance High School in Parmele. She graduated from East End High School in Robersonville in May of 1958.

After relocating to Brooklyn, New York for a short period of time, Janie married her high school sweet heart, the late Willie Clyde Price. They made their home in Connecticut for over fifty years.

Janie's early childhood training and work ethic made her an invaluable employee of T-Bar Corporation.

Her motivation and determination earned several outstanding job performance awards.

Janie had a loving family oriented nature that manifested itself through the community. She was a faithful member of St. Paul Church in Bridgeport, CT.

She was preceded in death by her sisters, Ollie Mae Jefferson, Mattie Mariner, Ella (Sweet) Highsmith; brothers, David, Worriss and Dennis Earl Black.

Janie's legacy will be remembered and treasured by her son, Mitchell (Deb) of Bridgeport, CT; three grandsons, E. J. (Tanisha) of Brandywin, MD, Willie (Latoya) of Capital Heights, MD; Fabin of Bridgeport, CT; one sister, Elvira Griffin of Robersonville, NC; two brothers, Wendell Black (Lorene) of Irvington, NJ; Pastor Gregory Black (Patricia) of Robersonville, NC; one aunt, Sadie Black-Price of Williamston, NC and a host of nieces, nephews other relatives and friends that will greatly miss her.

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Janie Price. With deep respect on this sad occassion I would like to share some bible scriptures that have comforted me in the past. Revelation 21:3-5 God promises that He will eliminate death forever. And at John 5:28,29 He also promises that He will resurrect those that have fallen asleep in death. I whole heartedly hope these scriptures bring you some comfort during this difficult time.

*Sincerely,
Ellie*
