

Mr. Jasper Ray Cox

April 19, 1946 - April 27, 2014

“The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want.” -Psalm 23:1

Jasper “Ray” Cox was born April 19, 1946 in Pitt County to the late John Louis Cox and the late Annie Council Cox. “Ray” as he was known to many, departed his earthly life on Sunday, April 27, 2014 at Vidant Medical Center. Ray was educated at Bethel Union School in Bethel, NC, where he participated in various sports. Throughout the years, Ray had a passion for playing baseball and during his later years, he umpired.

Ray was loved by many and was very affectionate to his family and friends. Wherever Ray was, he was always entertaining and constantly reminding everyone “You Better Think About It!”

Ray is preceded in death by one brother, William Earl Cox; one sister, Marian Dean Wilkins.

Ray leaves to cherish his memories one daughter; Gloria Dembele of Philadelphia, PA; one brother, Joe L Cox (Ida Mae) of New Haven, CT; five sisters, Julie Bryant (Walter) of Copaigue, NY, Eleanor Hubbard of Massapequa, NY, Annie D. Hines (Bobby), Johnnie M. Hines, all of Bethel, NC, Audrey Cox of Washington, NC; three aunts, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, others relatives and friends.

“ We always miss our departed love ones. But if Jasper Ray accepted Christ as his savior he is now dancing on a street of gold, or perhaps admiring those walls of jasper filled with many precious stones. Christ has promised all eternal life and a mansion on high if they will but serve him. Praise God and his holy son Lord Jesus Christ. Amen!
