

Mr. Jay Hagens

January 11, 1954 - December 19, 2024

In Loving Memory of Jay Nicholas Hagens

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Jay Nicholas Hagens, who peacefully departed this life on December 19, 2024, at the age of 70. Jay was a devoted husband, a loving father, a cherished brother, and a steadfast friend. His warmth, generosity, and vibrant spirit left an indelible mark on everyone fortunate enough to know him. Jay lived a life filled with love, laughter, and purpose, always finding joy in the simple yet profound connections with those he held dear. He will be remembered for his unwavering kindness, his ability to light up a room with his presence, and the countless ways he selflessly enriched the lives of others. A Celebration of Life to honor and remember Jay will be held on Saturday, December 28, 2024, at 1:00 PM, at Philippi Church of Christ, where family, friends, and loved ones will gather to share memories and pay tribute to a truly remarkable soul. May Jay's legacy of compassion, love, and an enduring zest for life continue to inspire us all. He will forever live in our hearts, and his memory will be a beacon of hope and love for generations to come.

“Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day.”

Rest in eternal peace, Jay Nicholas Hagens.

“ CV (aka “Bear”) and Brenda Faye... we have too many memories to mention of Jay. Our fondest memories were growing up together in our hometown. Our families were as one. Jay was always the life of our gatherings with a smile that lit up any room and a big heart for all he knew and loved. You will be greatly missed. We extend our sincere condolences 🌸 to the family. Rest in Power Jay. You mother, father and Jimmy heavenly awaits you 🙏❤️

“ O, how I will miss you, Daddy. Your words of wisdom, your warm embraces, and your radiant smile will forever remain in my heart. My soul aches, shattered into a million pieces, but I find comfort in knowing you are truly at peace.

Before your transition, we shared a beautiful moment reflecting on the joyous times and cherished memories we created together—moments that will forever be etched in my mind. You told me you didn't want to leave us but trusted that we would be okay with the Lord's guidance.

Thank you, from the depths of my heart, for everything you've done and for the incredible father you've been in my life. Your granddaughter Zuri misses you so much. Although she's too young to fully understand, I will ensure she knows how deeply you loved her.

“To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.” Rest peacefully, Daddy, until we meet again.

“ I/we miss you every single day daddy. The hurt I feel is indescribable but the pain and hurt you once went through has ended and your soul is at rest. Im believing in God to see us through this and to add some comfort to our hearts. Im proud to say I had one of the smartest fathers whose wisdom was infinite. Daddy, I love you and miss you so much and I pray that we get to see each other again one day. Love always your baby girl Joy Hagans.

“ Our Heartfelt Condolences & Prayers Goes Out To The Hagans Family! One Of My fondest memory of my Brother Elder Jay Hagans. Is when me, & Willie T, went to the Potter House in Kinston. Where he had an early speaking engagement at 11a, & we was running late. When we got there at 11:30. Come to found out the Pastor said: Everything is ok, we don’t start until 12noon. We couldn’t help but have a sigh of relief, & a laughing moment. He said, Deac we made it. I count it a blessing for God given us the opportunity to know you, & being friends with the whole family. Rest In Peace, My Brother! 🙏🙏💕💕

“ It was Jimmy, Jay, Jeffrey, Jace; we were of the DOWNTOWN FAMILIES. As youths, we played in each other's backyards day in & day out, from mornings to nights. Where "Sweetie" and Pete took the 4 of you, they also took us along. We were, indeed, Family. Jay reiterated us as Family when I visited him on Sunday, December 8,2024. May Jay find rest in the arms of Jesus. Peace and Blessings to Jay's Family.
