

Mr. Jeffery "Jeff" King

June 2, 1959 - January 18, 2025

Jeffery "Jeff" Lee King was born on June 2, 1959 in Roswell, New Mexico. He was the oldest child to William Richard King and Mary Madeline Amos. He departed this earthly life Saturday, January 18, 2025 at his home.

Jeff resided many places throughout his life which included New Mexico, West Virginia, California, Florida, Mission, Port Isabel and Corpus Christy, Texas, Washington, thirty-five plus years in Nashville, Tennessee to finally rest in North Carolina.

Jeff was united in matrimony to Susan Chrystal King. This union was blessed with one son, Dakota "Cody" Raymond King. Sadly, this union was dissolved after twenty-five years, however, the two remained good friends.

Jeff was employed by Pendergraph Corporation and worked as a maintenance man for Andrews Park for many years.

Jeff was preceded in death by his sister, Wren Bowman who shared a strong bond with him until his death. He also had two other sisters, Robin Spence and Valerie King Watson.

Jeff leaves behind friends, Janine Coriell, Gary Coriell, Joseph, Tammy and Mike Gedrimas, Rebecca Wickens and many other friends which are not mentioned.

Jeff was a devoted fan of NFL Football surrounding himself with material, statistics, conversation and emotional battle over the wins and losses of every game. He was an avid Titan's and Bronco's Fan.
