

Mr. Jerrod Markee Wilson

June 18, 1983 - February 15, 2015

Jerrod Markee Wilson was born on June 18, 1983 to the union of Bishop & Janice Wilson in Martin County. Jerrod departed this life on February 15, 2015.

“Lil Rod”, as he was affectionately known, was the baby of the Wilson five siblings. At an early age, he joined United Hoy Church of Deliverance under the tutelage of his father. He was educated in the Martin County Public Schools and furthered his education at Pitt Community College studying Business Administration. He was employed at Elite Care, Inc.- Tarboro, NC.

“Lil Rod” was very adventurous, well-known and very loveable. In 2012, he began his own industry, known as Whodi World Entertainment. He lived his life to the fullest, always wore a smile, never met a stranger and always had positive words to encourage someone else.

He leaves to cherish precious memories, his loving parents, Bishop & Janice Wilson; his precious princess, Makenna Nicole Wilson; his siblings, Metrive Harvey (Donnial), Demetrice Wilson, Jerome Wilson, Jr., and Shaveka Wilson; his grandfather, Lennell Jones; his girlfriend, LaTasha McDowell; his best friends, Ervin Spruill, Desmuou Staton and Dari Jones; nine aunts; seven uncles; a host of favorite nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ This guy here real special guy.. could always make me laugh. I remember at his grandmother's funeral he and I met outside and even though he was hurting, he took time out to tell some jokes, and funny "remember when" stories..I won't forget that or him. Wilson family, I love you all. No need for me to tell you all to stick together, depend on God or anything like that.. You always do that anyway all I am going to say is, I love you all!!!
