

Mr. Jesse Ebron

February 3, 1936 - October 1, 2022

Jesse M. Ebron was born February 3, 1936 in Stokes, NC to Major and Mary Ebron, he was one of fourteen children. He departed this life on October 1, 2022 at ECU Health Medical Center.

Jesse attended schools in Pitt County. Later attending school in Durham NC to learn the skill of watch making. He lived in New Jersey for many years.

Jesse relocated to Greenville, North Carolina in 1972. He worked with the City of Greenville as a Building Inspector until he retired in 2000.

Jesse married Verna Marable in 1992. Jesse enjoyed traveling from North Carolina to California with his wife Verna exploring and meeting people on his journey. Jesse loved to tackle difficult building projects and build. He enjoyed spending time and talking with his friends over coffee at McDonalds every morning.

Everyone that knew Jesse, affectionately called him "Bro", and knew he had a story to tell or advice to provide. He knew everyone and never met a stranger. Jesse was preceded in death by his parents, Major and Mary, sons Gregory, Bobby, and Bret, and seven siblings.

Jesse leaves to cherish his memory wife of 30 years Verna; three daughters, Belinda "Lynn" Ebron Davis, Cynthia Marable, and Bonita Marable; four sons, Johnny Fleming (Mary Ann), Bernard Marable (Crystal), Carnell Marable (Diosa), and Damarcus Marable (Cecila); twenty-seven grandchildren and great children; five brothers, Wallace T. Charles (Geraldine), Hassell, Herman "Larry", and Lloyd Lee; one sister, Mary Barrett (Edward); along with a host of nieces, nephews, several close relatives; and his beloved “Coffee Crew.” Jesse will be greatly missed but we that believe in Christ, know that he is resting with his family and in the arms of Jesus.

“ I was blessed and honored to be able to call you Dad. Your kindness and undying love for your family always inspired me. You were one of the nicest people I will ever know and although we didn't see each other very often lately, just the mention of your name always brought a smile to my face. We will miss you dearly but I'm sure that Heaven is rejoicing to have one of their angels return home. Gone but never forgotten!
