“ Today I am reflecting upon the fond memories I have of a young Jhoi sitting beside me and squirming on the pew at SHMBC, while her mother played for the choir. Time and distance separated us over the years, but the joy of knowing her brings warmth to my heart. Sleep peacefully, Jhoi.

“ Deborah, Justin, and Family: So very sorry to hear of Jhoi's transition. She was such a quiet young lady with a smile that lit up wherever she was. I remember Justin and Jhoi attending Sadie Saulter Elementary at a young age. Since then, time has passed so quickly. Trust in our Lord. When our grief won't let us stand on our own, the Lord will carry us at such a difficult time as this. As you navigate the rivers of grief, always remember that you are never alone. Just know that my prayers are with you both now and in the days ahead.
