

Mr. Jimmy Clarence Moring "Mookie"

January 28, 1945 - January 10, 2012

Jimmy Clarence Moring was born, January 28, 1945, to the late Mrs. Mary Morning Hollis and William Gifford Morning. On January 10, 2012 Jimmy passed away in Greenville at the home of his niece and caregiver, Marie Morning Brown. Jimmy was born in Camden County, near Elizabeth City, NC. Jimmy was one of nine children and lived most of his childhood in the Pitt and Martin County areas. He attended Bethel Union School before moving to Danbury, Connecticut. After living and working in Danbury for about 10 years, Jimmy returned to Robersonville, NC where he lived until his health declined. Jimmy is preceded in death by four sisters and brothers: Alberta Morning (1936-1995); Billy B. Morning (1938-2005); Clarthare Morning Hyman (1942-2008); and Janie Margie Morning Holley (1947-2002).

He leaves to mourn and cherish his memory, one sister, Maggie Morning of Robersonville, NC and two brothers: Eddie Morning (Shirely) of Danbury, CT. and James Cleveland Morning of Robersonville, NC. He is also mourned by nieces and nephews: Marie Brown, Greenville, NC, Janie Teresa Ricks (James) of Richmond, VA., Tammy Bryant, Gracy Morning, Margie Tyatt, Lisa Morning, Pam Sheppard, Chris Moore, Tyrone Morning, J.C. Morning, Eddie Morning Jr., Hattie Love, Barbara Morning and Billy Morning Jr.; two aunts Christine Bryant and Pastor Bertha Cromwell.

Memories of Jimmy are also cherished by 16 great nieces and nephews as well as other family members and friends.

Cemetery Details

Robersonville Memorial Gardens

2418 C.L. Keel Road
Robersonville, NC 27871

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Jimmy Clarence Morining "Mookie" ”

October 06, 2023 at 05:52 AM