

Ms. JoAnn Staton

January 1, 1952 - January 29, 2023

Joann Staton was born on January 1, 1952 in Pitt County to the late Robert Offarrow and Joanna Spruill Staton. She departed this life on Sunday, January 29, 2023.

Joann attended Martin County School and worked many long hours and days on the farm. She resided in Robersonville, NC and was a faithful member of the House of Refuge, Robersonville, NC under the leadership of her nephew and Pastor Ronnie Staton until her health declined. To know Joann was to love her. A woman of God, a woman that loved her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and would love you too if you met her. Joann loved her siblings and had such a big heart in giving and blessing others. Joann was dedicated to the love of her life Savalius Bridgers aka "Rat." If you messed with him or even looked wrong, you would have to deal with her in a special way.

Joann was preceded in death by her son, James Arthur Staton; grandson, James Arthur Staton, Jr; two sisters, Marcerine Brown, Linda Faye Johnson.

Joann leaves to cherish her memory one daughter, Bonita Taylor (Andre) of Oak City, NC; two grandchildren, Tahkeem Staton of Oak City, Jakela Taylor of Greenville, NC; four sisters, Fanny Perkins (Curtis) of Stokes, NC, Annie Bridgers (Jim) of Gold Point, Brenda Staton of Bethel, NC, Betsy Hardison

(Levi) of Robersonville, NC; four brothers, Ed Staton of Robersonville, NC, Henry Staton (Mary) of Scotland Neck, NC, Mike Staton (Ursula) of Spring Green, NC, Ricky Staton of Goldpoint, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
