

Mr. Joe Roberson

August 12, 1938 - October 22, 2019

Joe Louis Roberson was born August 12, 1938 to the late Francis and Frank Roberson Sr. He was born in Oak City, NC. He attended school in the Martin County system. Joe entered eternal rest Tuesday October 22, 2019 at Vidant Heart Institute. Joe married the love of his life Gloria Dell Everett. They were married sixty-one years until he departed this life.

Joe was a die hard Washington Redskins fan and often watched the game alone when they played the Dallas Cowboys which was his wife's favorite team so when the Cowboys and Redskins played it was truly a house divided but only at game time.

Joe and Gloria loved to sit on the porch in the morning and drink coffee and start their day with long conversations of what their children and grandchild did during one of their visits.

Joe worked as a forklift operator for over thirty years at the Williamston Peanut Plant until his retirement.

Joe was a member of St. Mark Church of Christ Disciples of Christ and was faithful and dedicated in the office of an Usher.

Joe was preceded in death by his parents, Francis Latham Roberson and Frank Roberson Sr.; two brothers, Frank Jr. and Willie Vance Roberson; two sisters, Darlene Vines, Mary Elizabeth Roberson; two daughters, Karen Denise Roberson, Verna Beach; five sons, Reginald Earl Everett (Pam), Johnny Wayne Roberson, Shelton Leon Everett (Dickie), Larry Everett and Jeffrey Paul Roberson; one grandson, Deon Beach.

“ Joe was a great friend. During our sophomore and junior years at Flint Northern, I picked up Joe, Cliff Hart, and sometimes others, in my Dad's 1937 Buick for rides to school and back. Although he was more than a foot taller, and a much more gifted athlete, he paid me a prized compliment in 1952 yearbook, writing, "to a swell little guy with a lot bigger heart" Joe Roberson. I will cherish that until I die. R.I.P. Joe. Dick Spencer.

“ Oh how much it hurt when I learned of Poppa Joe's passing. I spent 2 years with his family and him and Momma Gloria became my adoptive parents. A void is in the Roberson's Family now. With heartfelt sympathy and my condolences to the family. Poppa Joe is gone, but never forgotten.
