“ It was a great honor to have known Mr Spruill. I had the pleasure of meeting him in his town of Oak City NC. This young man walked in the post office dressed very nice. He was adorned in his black cowboy hat, leather black vest , jeans and cowboy boots. Mr Fox was a very loving, kind, and humble soul. He had a very nice voice as well. I always knew he was in the post office because he would either be singing or he would holler out my name. No one could call my name like him. Mr Spruill you left some big boots to fill . No one will ever walk in the love you showed to you friend and family. Rest in Peace !!!❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️ . Apostle Faison
