

Mr. Joshua Rae Evans

October 22, 1987 - December 9, 2015

Joshua Rae Evans was born October 22, 1987 in Greenville, North Carolina. He is the son of Sonya Demetria Evans and Jonathan Richard Jenkins.

Joshua joined Anderson Chapel Missionary Baptist Church at a young age. He was a son, father, brother, nephew, cousin and United States Veteran. He attended Edgecombe County Public Schools and Pitt County Public Schools. He started the chess club at South Central High School. After graduating, Joshua enlisted in the United States Army. He was awarded Declarations, Medals, Badges, Citations and Campaign Ribbons. They are as follows: National Defense Service Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal, Army Service Ribbon, Combat Infantry Man Badge, Marksmanship Qual Badge Expert with Rifle. Joshua was honorably discharged, but he continued to love his country and to do it for America. His favorite pastimes were Chess, fishing, and helping others. Joshua was very family oriented. He loved his son, his mother, and his siblings dearly. In order to know Joshua, you had to know his heart. Joshua was the epitome of love – he loved unconditionally. His favorite lines were: “It’s combat, Baby; Do it for America!” and “Do your thang!”

We shall always treasure the life we shared together. Surviving to cherish his memory are son, Jaydyn Joshua Griffin Evans of Garner, NC; mother, Sonya Evans of Winterville, NC; father, Jonathan R. Jenkins of Durham, NC; two sisters, Amber Jenkins of Durham, NC, Nylah Evans of Winterville, NC; one brother, Jonathan R. Jenkins II of Durham, NC; great grandmother, Sarah Horne of Pinetops, NC and a host of other relatives and friends.

Joshua was full of life and never met a stranger. He loved often, laughed a lot and proudly served his country.
