

Ms. Judy Hines Stevenson

August 8, 1947 - June 6, 2016

Judy Ann Stevenson was born August 8, 1948 to the late Mrs. Fannie Hines Loatman and Mr. Andrew Loatman in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. She departed this life on June 6, 2016.

Judy received her formal education in Rocky Mount, NC and was a graduate of Booker T. Washington High School. She was employed by Pitt Memorial Hospital (Vidant) for thirty years until her retirement in 2010.

Judy was a very active and faithful member of Guiding Light Ministries. She served in several ministries in the church. Judy was a Mother of the church, part of the welcome committee, and on the Usher board. She received her ministry license on April 26, 2015. Judy continued to perform in all her roles until health no longer permitted.

Judy was loved by many. She was generous, kind, sincere and loving. A lady who truly believed in the power of GOD and family. Her door was always open to everyone. She met no strangers. Half of Greenville called her "Ma" or "Grandma".

She leaves to cherish the memories of her life, her devoted children; Tosacha Loatman Kirby (Timothy) of Wilson, NC, Tomecka Stevenson (Mario) of Greenville, NC, Darryl Anthony Stevenson of Greenville, NC; one sister, Barbara Batts of Raleigh, NC ; three brothers, Rev. Harold Hines (Helen) of Williamsburg Va., Frankie Loatman of Baltimore, Maryland, Douglas Robinson (Gwen) of Durham, NC; ten grandchildren, Stephen Loatman, Kenya "KeKe" Evans, Shanya Stevenson, Bryan and Timothy "Jazzie" Kirby, Antwon Worthington, Kianna and Theodore "DJ" Dunn, Takira and DeShanti Stevenson; nine great grandchildren; one aunt, Elizabeth Purvis of Greenville, NC; special cousin, Vickie Taylor; special niece, Teresa Batts, other nieces, nephews, cousins, adopted children, grandchildren, a host of relatives and friends.

“ Words cannot even begin to describe the beauty both inside and outside of this sweet Angel that I met at Pitt County Memorial Hospital now Vidant Medical Center. The godliness and love that she gives to all she meets is beyond expression. The lovely smile she carried was a winner.... She won every heart she met including mine. The birthdays get togethers, the girlfriends hangout with Vikki, Al and Evelyn..... This is one that will be dearly missed.... But she's out of her suffering and with her Maker and Oh what a glorious time she's having. RIP Mother Stevenson.... Love you.

“ I'm loss for words. Judy was a second mother to many of us over the hill. Her house was our house back in the day, she made us laugh and cry at times, never let us get away with anything lol. Thank you for always showing us love, and listen to us. Darryl and Tomecka thank you for sharing your mother with us. Love always, Donna Miller

“ Rest in the loving arms of Jesus Mother Stevenson! I remember you praising God at Guiding Light to your favorite song "I Wanna Go To Heaven". That's how I will always remember you...thanking and praising God even when you weren't feeling well. You never lost your praise! May God continue to comfort the family and know Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal!
