

Infant King Lamar Cantey-Grimes

August 16, 2024 - August 16, 2024

On August 16, 2024 King Lamar Cantey-Grimes was born to Keymauni La'Shon Grimes and Mikye Cantey. He made his royal arrival and departure into the pearly gates of heaven. Although his life was short lived the memory of his existence will dwell in our mind and hearts forever.

Luke 18:16 in the bible states, "Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is such as these that the kingdom of God belongs." This verse is a reminder to embrace the innocence of children, purity, and love that children naturally have. Revelation 21:4, in the bible states, "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nr crying nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away."

King leaves to cherish his memory his parents, Keymauni Grimes of Greenville, NC, Mikye Cantey of Grifton, NC, his grandparents, Ashley Bailey of Bear Grass, NC, Kwuanta Grimes (Tanisha) of Greenville, NC, LaToya Cantey of Grifton, NC; his great grandparents, Rosa Andrews (Freddie) of Bethel, NC, Shelia Bailey (Michael) of Nashville, NC, Kenneth Bailey of Durham, NC, Arthur Goddard (Terreso) of Williamston, NC, Jean Cantey of Grifton, Gwen Thompson of Greenville, NC; four aunts, Ashawndrea Grimes of Greenville, NC, De'Ziyah Clark, Ashari Grimes and Kwuanila Grimes of Greenville, NC; three uncles, Dushon Grimes of Greenville, NC, Jalien Cantey of Grifton, NC; three special great aunts, Kenishia Bailey of Rocky Mount, NC, Freida Andrews of Bethel, NC, Janequa Goddard of Williamston, NC; two special great uncles, Kenneth Bailey, Jr. of Greenville, NC and Quante Brown of Greenville, NC; a host of great-great aunts and uncles, cousins that will celebrate his memory.
