

Mrs. LeVolia A. Lawrence

October 2, 1952 - February 27, 2014

LeVolia Allsbrooks Lawrence was born October 2, 1952 to the late Edward and Dicie Lewis Allsbrooks in Union County, NC.

She attended East Union School in Marshville, NC from the first through eleventh grades. Her Senior high school year was completed at Forest Hills High School.

Upon graduation, LeVolia enrolled at North Carolina Central University in Durham, NC. During her time there she met and was married to Michael Garrett. To this union a daughter, Candace was born.

Relocating to Greenville, NC, LeVolia became a member of Cornerstone Missionary Baptist Church and was employed at TRW Steering & Suspension Industries. During the many years that followed, LeVolia began to pursue an intimate walk with the Lord Jesus Christ, and in so doing developed life-long friendships with several people, including Gertha Crumpler, Joyce Jones, Rebecca Oats, Larry Mumford, and James Wallace.

LeVolia was a diligent student of God's Word and was known by many as a woman of steadfast faith. Her quick wit, infectious laugh and compassion brought healing and joy to so many people even if they were in her presence for only a short time.

In 1989, LeVolia, wed George Lawrence. They enjoyed 24 years together, and their home was often a gathering place for fellowship, Bible study, singing and praying. LeVolia was a gracious hostess and visitors consistently acknowledged the peace that they experienced as they spent time in her home.

Loving her and fully expecting to see her again are: her daughter, Candace Garrett Daly and grandchildren, Nicholas, Hylah and Hannah; brothers, Earnest Lee and Jerry Allsbrooks (Madelaine); sisters, Lillie Mae Lee and Leonia Jones (Barry); niece, Amy McCleave; nephews, Brian Villegas (Sheila), Reggie Jones, Jerry Allsbrooks, Jr. (Tina) and Brian Allsbrooks; Godson, Sgt. Emmanuel Chance Jones (Qua); and 'Mother Dear' Clotea Garrett.

LeVolia was reunited in Heaven with her brother William Allsbrooks who preceded her.

“ Hi I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. I am a local bible student and there is a scripture that comfort can be found in at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some comfort during these difficult times.

“ To Candace and the entire Lawrence Family,
We send our deepest condolences to you in the loss of such a dear sweet person. From the small town of Marshville North Carolina and the Elizabeth Missionary Baptist Church family please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
The Belin Family were closely connected with Mr. Ed and Mrs.
Diccie and the bond we shared will never be forgotten. Levolia was a sweet beautiful person and we want you to know that we Loved her very much and we further know and she now rest in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. May God grant you comfort during this time.

Love,

Carrie Belin, and Children Irene, Darlene and Elden

“ I met Lavolia at TRW back in 1991. I was truly blessed to have met her. She was one of the kindest people I have ever met and she taught me a lot about life itself.

My heartfelt prayers and condolences go out to Lavolia's family and friends. She will be missed terribly by everyone that knew her. May God bless each and everyone that knew her.

*Sincerely,
Chris Puckett*
