

Ms. Louise Lynch

May 9, 1940 - September 30, 2020

Evangelist Louise Eleanor Lynch was born in Pitt County on May 9, 1940. She went home to be with the Lord on September 30, 2020.

Louise, affectionally called “Weezy”, attended Pitt County School where she graduated. Soon after graduation she married and later moved to Philadelphia, PA to start a new life. Then she relocated South Jersey, and eventually moved to Rahway, NJ where she worked and retired from Rahway Hospital as a Monitor Tech in the Heart Dept.

Louise joined “Living Waters New Life Ministries” founders Pastor Samuel and Beverley Wilson, Pastor, Leon and Lady Kornegay. Later she joined “Birth by Christ” ministries, under Pastor Judy Cunningham.

Louise was preceded by her mother, Lucille Brandon; her sister, Rether Spell; brothers, Dan and Sylvester Lynch.

Nashelle, Brianna, Dashan, Autumn, Keith, and Jamill.

She loved her Solomon children, and always bragged on their singing, her Sister in Christ, Yvonne Briggs.

Evangelist Lynch was most known for her singing. No one can hit those high notes like her. She loved the Lord and Worshiped until the end. Her last clear words were "God is Great!"
