

Mrs. Louvenia Bell Slade

January 28, 1931 - May 18, 2021

Louvenia Bell Slade, affectionately known as “Sister” daughter of the late John Bell and Zelue Bell was born on January 28, 1931 in Robersonville, NC. She departed this earthly life on May 18, 2021 in the Atrium Center for Rehabilitation and Nursing in Brooklyn, NY at the age of 90. Louvenia was the last of sixteen children.

Louvenia married James Ernest Slade on September 21, 1948. They moved to Brooklyn, NY hoping for a better life. She was a stay at home mom and a childcare provider to many in her neighborhood. Louvenia was President of the P.T.A. at Williams J Gaynor Intermediate School I.S. 49 in Brooklyn, Ny. She would also volunteer at Juan Morel Campus Intermediate School 71 also in Brooklyn, NY.

Louvenia loved to cook and bake. She would often make cakes and pies for her sister, Anlizer Bell Christie for bake sales she would have at work. It made her so happy to make someone smile. Once her children were grown, Louvenia wanted to do more. With the help of her sister Edna Bell McDowell she gained employment at the Salvation Army Daycare Center.

Louvenia loved the Lord, she accepted Christ at an early age. She joined Little Zion Church in Brooklyn, NY where she sang in the Senior Choir. Her voice was angelic, there was nothing she could not sing. Louvenia’s favorite song was “It is no secret what God can do.” To know Louvenia was to love her.

Louvenia touched the lives of many with her infectious smile and her willingness to always lend a helping hand.

Louvenia was preceded in death by her loving husband, James Ernest Slade; two sons, Edward Earl Slade, Alvin A. Slade.

Louvenia leaves to cherish her memories, two daughters, Stephanie Slade-Bond of Staten Island, NY, Zelue E. Slade of Brooklyn, NY; two sons, Michael C. Slade of Pinetops, NC, James A. Slade of Charlotte, NC; two grandchildren that she raised her own, Annette Slade-Brantley of Jersey City, NJ, Nikholas E. Slade of Chesterfield, VA; two daughters-in-law, Shirley Slade and Caprissa Brown Slade; one son-in-law, Johnathan Brantley; twelve grandchildren; seventeen great grandchildren; one great-great grandchild; a host or relatives, Godchildren, and friends.
