

Ms. Lucy Everett Black

November 10, 1926 - October 3, 2013

Lucy Mae Black was born on November 10, 1926, in Martin County, North Carolina, one of twelve children born to the later Charlie Everett, Sr., and Lucy Hines Everett. Lucy departed this earth and traveled to her heavenly home on Thursday, October 3, 2013.

Lucy Mae married the apple of her eye, Jesse B. Black, on July 23, 1949. They were happily married for 40 years and God blessed them with four beautiful children. Her adoring children called her Mama, but she was a "Mother" to all.

Lucy Mae had a quiet spirit and when she spoke people listened to what she had to say. She was a Fashionista, -- everything matched from head to toe. She enjoyed spending her time with her grandchildren, sharing her words of wisdom with them and giving them advice. Family time was very special to her, especially at Christmas, decorating the tree and gift-giving. She had a true love for sports; basketball, especially the "March Madness Series, a devoted DUKE Basketball fan ((GO DUKE). She was a devoted Wii Bowling Game competitor and a devoted College Football fan. Lucy Mae loved to cook. She could cook the best sweet potato pies, molasses puddings, pineapple cakes, and collard greens in the world.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Jesse B. Black; daughter Wanda Black Strickland (Toot); Sisters: Earma Mae Moore, Esther Keel, Betty Ward, Julie Lawrence, and Annie Marie Jordan; Brothers: James and Charlie Everett, Jr.

She leaves a legacy of cherished memories to her daughter, Sandra Black Bell of Kettering, MD; Sons, Shelbert Black (Elaine) of Greenville NC, and Wayne Black (Linda) of Bethel, NC; five grandchildren: Brian Bell (Crystal) of State College, Pa., Jewel Black of Cary, NC., Skylar Black, Kiana Black, both of Bethel, NC., and Derrick Langley of Greenville, NC.; a special son-in-law, Robert Earl Strickland of Louisburg, NC; two sisters: Christine Everett of Stone Mountain, GAk and Margaret Heyward of Brooklyn, NY; two brothers, William Oscar (Boot) Everett of Robersonville, NC, and Jesse Everett, Sr. (Hazel) of Robersonville, NC., and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who loved her dearly.
