

Mrs. Lueta Carlsen Sellers

July 17, 1943 - April 3, 2025

Lueta C. Sellers, a remarkable woman of passion and unwavering dedication, embarked on her next great adventure on April 3rd, 2025. She was 81 years old.

Lueta's life was defined by intellectual curiosity and a deep commitment to social justice. She earned an undergraduate degree in chemistry from the University of Florida, demonstrating her keen scientific mind. Later, she received a master's degree in counseling from Wake Forest University, reflecting her desire to guide and support others.

Lueta's career path was as diverse as her interests. She excelled as a chemist, a counselor, and a tireless advocate for civil rights, women's rights, and public education. Through her leadership and unwavering dedication to equality and justice she left an indelible mark on her community. In her later years, Lueta expressed her creativity through art, adding another layer to her multifaceted life.

Above all, Lueta was a loving partner and best friend to Frank Sellers, her lifetime love, for over 65 years. She was also a phenomenal mother to her daughters, Lilie and Alicia, instilling in them the values of compassion, acceptance, and respect for all. Lueta's unique ability to "think outside the box" inspired those around her, and her radiant and elegant spirit touched countless lives.

Lueta's memory will be forever cherished by her life partner, Frank Sellers; her daughter, Lilie Sellers and child Owen Sellers-Penhollow; daughter Alicia Sellers and her husband Ernie Chilcott and child River Chilcott; and a host of other family and friends.

In lieu of flowers, Lueta would be honored for donations to be made in her memory to one of her favorite charities: Planned Parenthood (www.plannedparenthood.org), Doctors Without Borders (www.doctorswithoutborders.org), Southern Poverty Law Center (www.splcenter.org)

Lueta's sparkle will forever illuminate our hearts, and her legacy of love and respect will continue to inspire us all.
