

Mrs. Mamie Ruth Davis

May 22, 1955 - November 9, 2021

Mamie Ruth Johnson Davis was born on May 22, 1955 in Farmville, NC to the late Kinley and Helen Johnson. Mamie peacefully transitioned on November 9, 2021 in Greenville, NC while surrounded by family.

Mamie was a lifelong member of Bibleway Holiness Church. She developed a love for teaching early in life while teaching Sunday school. Mamie went on to earn her Bachelor's and Masters of Education from East Carolina University.

Mamie dedicated 32 years of employment as a Special Needs educator. The schools she served included North Pitt High School, E. B. Aycock Middle School, C.M. Eppes Middle School, H. B. Suggs Primary, and Elmhurst Elementary. "Mama" Davis as she was affectionately known loved her students and her duty to them did not end when the school day did as she celebrated their successes and would aid them in anything from rental applications to job searches.

After retirement, Mamie served her family, friends, church, and former students by embracing her role as a community mama. She had a smile for everyone, a listening ear, a wise word, a prayer, and even a joke or two to brighten your day.

Mamie is preceded in death by her loving parents, along with two siblings,

Patricia Ann Smith and Kenneth Ray Johnson.

Mamie leaves to cherish her memory her husband, Roy Lee Davis of Winterville, NC; one daughter, Rashandra "Shawn" Davis Lasley (Brian) of Greenville, NC; one son Kevin Davis (Christina) of Durham, NC; one God-daughter, Tammy Finch Grant of Pikeville, NC; three grandsons, Brandon Lasley, Mason Davis, and Kaleb Davis; one God-granddaughter, Kyla Grant of Pikeville, NC; her siblings, Scotty Johnson (Janice) of Greenville, NC and Paulette Pridgen (Richard) of Farmville, NC; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
