

Mrs. Marcia Hooks

September 3, 1954 - April 8, 2017

TIME TO BE BORN~ Marcia Faye Witherspoon Hooks was born September 3, 1954 to the late David and the late Edna Witherspoon in Jones County. She departed this life on Saturday, April 8, 2017.

A TIME TO SERVE~ Marcia received her formal education from the Jones County School System. At an early age she attended and joined Hills Grove Holiness Church, Dover, NC where she was active in church by ushering and singing in the choir. Marcia raised her two daughters and was active in all family functions. In 2007, she married Alvin Ronald Hooks from Greenville, NC, and moved to Greenville to begin her new life. Marcia joined Holy Trinity United Holy Church, and was active in the Mission Circle, Helping Hands, Health Ministry, Choir #1, Mass Choir and Women's Fellowship. Marcia's gifts of patience and concern enabled her to have a career in the health care field, where she was employed as a Nursing Assistant at Service League Vidant Inpatient Hospice. Marcia loved her job dearly and was proud of her ability to comfort the sick and nurture the elderly. She was one of thirteen children in her family and was always kind to others.

Marcia is preceded in death by sister, Carolyn Smith; her twin brother, Marvin

Ray Witherspoon.

A TIME TO REMEMBER~ Marcia leaves to cherish in her sweet memories, her husband; Alvin Ronald Hooks of the home; two daughters, LaQuita J. Baker (Kedesh) of Atlanta, GA, Marion Ratliff (Wesley) of Greenville, NC; one step-daughter, Arielle Hooks; two step-sons, Alvin Hooks of Asheville, NC, Alex Hooks of Cary, NC; mother-in-law, Mrs. Hattie Hooks of Ayden, NC; six grandchildren, Tatyana Baker, LeRico Davis, Nehemiah Muhammad, Danae' Ratliff, Marcus Hooks, Rowan Hooks; eight sisters, Annie Croom of Hookerton, NC, Clara Cobb of Snow Hill, NC, Pauline Williams of Brown Hills, NJ, Ella Kinsey, Vivian Bouie, Evelyn Witherspoon, Edna Armanie, Karen Witherspoon all of Kinston, NC; three brothers, James Jones (Thomasina), David Witherspoon, Melvin Witherspoon all of Kinston, NC; host of nieces, nephews, family members and friends.

“ I will always remember your kindness towards me and the love for God we shared in caring for others. You will be missed by many but there is hope in knowing God's children will meet again free of the cares of this world. Love, Peace and Joy! ❤️🙏🏻🙏🏻🙏🏻🙏🏻🙏🏻🙏🏻 Alvin, my prayers are with you and the entire family for we know GOD IS FAITHFUL AND WILL SEE YOU THROUGH THIS AND YOUR DESTINY! Much love to all and I pray you feel it from all family and friends. ❤️🙏🏻🙏🏻

I am truly missing my Christian sister and my friend. She was a beautiful lady with a gracious spirit. Alvin and the children and grandchildren I am praying for you. I know you'll never stop missing her, but I hope you find some comfort in knowing that we will all be together again in that great getting up morning. Earth's lost is Heaven's gain. Be blessed. ---Elders Tammy & Russell Wilson
