Williamston, NC, Elizabeth Beasley (Clinton) of Rocky Mount, NC, and Valeria Speller of Fayetteville, NC; a host of siblings, nieces and nephews.

During her affliction, Margaret never wavered in the belief that God heals and found comfort in God's Living Word. She listened to her praise music daily to help soothe the pain of her physical condition. Margaret truly fought a good fight of faith.

“He placed me in a little cage,
Away from gardens fair;
But I must sing the sweetest songs
Because He placed me there.
Not beat my wings against the cage
If it's my Maker's will,
But raise my voice to heaven's gate.
And sing the louder still”

“ Brown was sweet and always helping everyone. Whenever we would ride to Petersburg we always had very interesting conversations to say the least. She would watch my son her grandson wgen he was an infant for me sometimes when I had to work late and she never told me she had aching throbbing arthritis. I had to observe it myself and she still wanted him to stay. Of course I couldn't do that. And when the grands were older each time I'd bring them (Bryant & Danielle) she always wanted to sit and talk. She had an open heart and optimistic word for everyone. I know she will be missed.

“ To my sweet spiritual mom...words cannot express how sweet and dear you were in my life. I love sharing how you were instrumental in leading me to Christ just from watching you read your Bible and getting me involved in your Bible when I was in high school. Thank you for coming to visit my family whether to help me out after surgery or helping to take care of my sons while Reg and I vacationed. Thank you for our talks and most importantly for our prayer time. You will truly be missed. I know you are rejoicing with the angels and that God has welcomed you in His loving arms as He whispered...WELL DONE MY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT! Love and miss you. Cynthia and family. ❤️❤️
