

Mrs. Marie Ann Dupree Hill

June 20, 1944 - September 8, 2019

On June 20, 1944, God sent Marie Ann Hill into the world to be a blessing to us all. She was born in Edgecombe County, North Carolina, the third oldest to George Luke Dupree, Sr. and the late Annie Louise Dupree. Marie attended and graduated with a High School Diploma at George Washington Carver in Pinetops, North Carolina. Marie migrated to The Bronx, New York in search of a better life and future. Marie pursued her first endeavor as a Para Professional at Community Elementary School 6, located on East Tremont Avenue in The Bronx, New York. She educated children on reading, writing and mathematics. As Marie's love grew fond of children, she decided to change her career and became a Family Day Care Provider with Cardinal McCloskey Day Care Center. Marie served families within her community. Her expertise led her to become a Foster Parent with Cardinal McCloskey Community Services. There, Marie fostered and nourished displaced children within all five boroughs of New York. As a daughter, sister, wife, mother, aunt, grandmother and great grandmother, Marie was always surrounded by children. Her struggles and accomplishments made her a stern and firm woman of God. Marie has gone home to meet with her heavenly siblings, Pauline Norfleet, George Luke Dupree, Jr., Betty Willoughby. Marie leaves to cherish her memories, children, David Eugene and Gwedolyn Campbell of Greenville, NC ☐ Jeanine Hill of Bronx, NY, ☐ Reymond Charles Hill of Bronx, NY ☐ Wanda Yvonne Hill of Raleigh, NC ☐ Vivian Hill of Bronx, NY ☐ Veronica Hill of Bronx, NY, ☐ Eric Hill of Bronx, NY ☐ Nissan Hill of Bronx, NY
