Sis Marie was truly a wonderful servant of God. She always had a smile on her face that could brighten anyone's day. She served faithfully as an usher, worked diligently in the kitchen, helped keep the church clean, helped with planting flowers in front of the church and gave her time and energy to so many areas of the ministry. Whatever needed to be done, she was willing to do it for the Lord.

Sis Marie loved her church family deeply, and we truly missed her—and Bro. Lou—when they moved. Her kindness, dedication, and beautiful spirit will never be forgotten.

Greater St. Paul Church is lifting the family up in prayer, asking God to bring comfort, strength, and peace during this difficult time.
