

Mrs. Mercedes Brown

August 29, 1929 - January 14, 2016

Mercedes B. Brown, daughter of the late Judge and Maggie Blackwell, entered this life on August 29, 1929 in Bethel, NC. She departed her earthly life on January 14, 2016 surrounded by her loved ones.

Mercedes attended the Bethel area Schools where she excelled in Basketball. At a young age she gave her life to Christ, and joined Medley Chapel CME Church and was a faithful usher. Mercedes was a homemaker for many years and then became employed with E.C.U. where she later retired.

Oh my, how she loved flowers. Mercedes would pull weeds; rake and trim her hedges until her health failed, then she would make us do the work. (Always give them their flowers while they are living, because when they are dead, they can't smell them.)

Mercedes was the mother of three sets of twins.

Mercedes have gone on to join her late husband, David; children, Jerry, Sherry, Evelyn, Donald, Willie Jasper, David Earl, Patricia and Cynthia; brothers, Christopher and Judge Jr.

Mercedes leaves to cherish her memories, daughter, Mary Lewis (Charles, a faithful son-n-law) of the home; son, Phillip Brown (Tredina) of Robersonville,

NC; sisters, Mary Benjamin of Bethel, NC, Ellen Jean Daniel (John) of Virginia Beach, VA; brother, Russell D. Blackwell of Wilson, NC; nineteen grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“May the work she’s done, speak for her”
